

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, In 1907, local farmers contributed to bringing the railroad north from Rutland to Nunda by moving a building from Chester to house the railroad workers; and,

Whereas, On September 9, 1907, the Nunda Post Office was established and the town of Nunda, with a population of 100, became incorporated; and,

Whereas, Despite its size of 45 residents, Nunda has been progressive while building Nunda Lutheran Church, Sherron-Faiferlick Post #105 American Legion Hall, a new water system, the Nunda Bar & Grill and the new Nunda Fire Hall; and,

Whereas, The community pride in towns like Nunda contributes greatly to the high quality of life in South Dakota and those who love the town of Nunda will gather to celebrate the community's 100th anniversary:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 30 and July 1, 2007, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
